

Open House Discussions with Islamic Scholars on Ramadan at Barjeel Al Arab Restaurant!

Celebrate Ramadan and learn Islamic Values

Dubai, UAE (July, 2015): This Ramadan the Barjeel Al Arab Restaurant, located at the Heritage Village by the scenic Dubai Creek, invites residents and visitors to hear Islamic discussions on Ramadan and Islam sponsored by Architectural Heritage Department.

The discussions starts one hour before the Al-Maghrib Prayers and followed by a traditional Iftar Dinner with a selection of Middle Eastern and Emirati delicacies prepared by our well experienced Chefs.

Iftar dinner can be served outdoors or indoors for both individual diners and small groups to enjoy. Indulge in Iftar dinner for AED 99 per person only. Group discounts are also available.

Habib Khan, General Manager, and CEO Hospitality Division of Planet Group said “Ramadan is a time to share and enjoy your blessings with family and friends. We are happy to have the Islamic Discussions at our Restaurant supported by Architectural & Heritage Department before the Iftar.

We also have our Iftar Diner offering at Barjeel Al Arab Restaurant where individuals, families and groups can experience the true feel of Arabian Culture with both Middle Eastern and local Emirati dishes.

Come with your family and friends for this learning and enjoyable experience at Barjeel Al Arab Restaurant, where you can enjoy your dinner with traditional 'ghawa' a selection of cold and hot mezze/mezzeh laid at your table, exciting main dishes from kebabs to char grilled seafood. With refreshing Ramadan juices and other local beverages filled to your heart's content, to complete your meal are a choice of desserts such as Luqmaat, sagaw and umm ali.

The celebration of Iftar at Barjeel Al Arab Restaurant is complemented with comfortable seating, traditional decorations where you can enjoy either as individual diners, with family and friends or a place to hold a corporate break of fast for small groups to large ones.

Located in downtown Bur Dubai, the Barjeel Al Arab is located near Al Ghubaiba Metro Station and represents the true warm hospitality of the Arabian feel.
